- _ One copy of a cast breakdown / production requirements (special requirements that might effect the reading), emailed to TRUPlaySubmissions@gmail.com **
- _ Statement of purpose: your objective for applying, and specifically why you feel TRU Voices is will help the development of your work; plus production history (if applicable)

* If you do not have an emailable version of script, you must request permission to send hard copies of everything by emailing TRUPlaySubmissions@gmail.com. If approved, send to the address at end of application. Do not send an SASE. Scripts will not be returned.

SOME GENERAL NOTES:

- Take pride in your work. Proofread for errors before submitting, and use professional formatting. Best to save as a PDF to maintain formatting. We discourage mailing a hard copy of your script, and you must email us to explain why you need to submit a hard copy. If you need to submit a hard copy, submit in a professional form, bound with a cover. No staples, paper clips or binder clips (honestly, scripts tend to fall apart without a cover - make it easy on the readers, please). Loose leaf binders are also acceptable.
- Please remove your name from title page (and all pages); or be aware that we will black out your name to "blind" submit to our readers.
- No submissions will be returned, but submissions will receive a feedback letter with comments from our readers, if you check that box and add $10 to your fee. If you are a TRU member, you will still need to include a $10 administrative fee for feedback. We repeat: no submissions will be returned. Please do not ask for an exception to be made.
- Submission deadlines will be strictly observed.
- Submissions that do not include all requested materials will not be considered.

Questions and submission materials can be emailed to Cate Cammarata at TRUPlaySubmissions@gmail.com
